

Our Business History

From humble beginnings to becoming the premier design center on the Oregon Coast, Wildflower Design has made it's mark for over 30 years.

Founder Loretta MacPherson named her business after her love of design and wildflowers. We continue to share her passion today.

We have a full service design showroom catering to both residential and commercial needs.

Wildflower is an active and long-standing member of the Greater Newport Chamber of Commerce.

We support our local arts community.

Our in-house team of professional contractors have over 60 years of combined home improvement experience.

Creating a home is a unique, personal experience.

Obtaining the desired feel to reflect your personal style can be overwhelming.

Whatever your style, our design staff will guide you through the maze of product choices using elements and principles of design.

Together we can create what your heart has always wanted - a home that nurtures and perfectly reflects who you are.
